

ABOVE (Abilities On the moVE), Erasmus +, Strategic Partnership

April 18th 2018, 2nd transnational meeting, Venice, Italy

SUMMARY:

1. CONTEXT
2. BASIC INFORMATIONS
3. AIMS OF THE PROJECT
4. TARGET GROUPS
5. MAIN ACTIVITIES
6. MAIN TASKS
7. MAIN RESULTS

Context

In many countries of the European Union :

- difficulty with mental health disabled people (psychic disability)
- particularly in their support to employment

Basic informations

Coordinator: Departemental Council of Val-de-Marne, France

Partners (ENSA, RegioEuropa):

Bubamara Udruga osoba s invaliditetom Vinkovci, Croatia ;

ENSA (European network of Social Authorities) Veneto region, Italy ;

Veneto Lavoro Veneto region, Italy;

Université Paris XII Val-de-Marne France;

Municipalité de DIMOS AGION ANARGIRON-KAMATEROU Greece;

Basic informations

Grant amount: 71 080 €

Duration: 1st September 2017- 31th August 2019

Transnational meetings: October 2017- Val-de-Marne, France;

April 2018- Veneto region, Italy;

October 2018- Athens Greece;

February 2019- Zagreb, Croatia;

June 2019: Final meeting, Brussels;

Aims of the project

- To analyse, understand better and share the issues between partners;
- To identify, understand better the challenges met by professionals (services providers);
- To formulate the strategies implemented by service providers or their funding authorities in order to resolve the key issues;
- To compare and assess the practices in order to identify best practices;

Target groups

- Professionals and service providers supporting people with mental health disabilities (local authorities, associations, companies, schools, universities...);
- People with mental health disabilities;

Main activities

- Transnational meetings/mobilities;
- Project management;
- Dissemination;
- Evaluation;

Main tasks

1. implementation of a group of local experts in each partner country in order to ensure the successful implementation and monitoring of the project - all partners;
2. drawing up a report on the needs of people with mental health disabilities for their socio-professional integration - Bubamara Association of Croatia;
3. drawing up a report on professional needs in vocational training in order to allow better support people with disabilities towards employment – CD 94;
4. development of an evaluation tool - Veneto Lavoro of Italy;
5. development of a model for the analysis and evaluation of vocational training methods - Université Paris XII Val-de-Marne;
6. preparation of a report with recommendations - Municipality of DIMOS AGION ANARGIRON-KAMATEROU of Greece;
7. dissemination of the results of the ENSA project and all partners;
8. development of the web page dedicated to the project with a google referencing –Cd 94

Main results

1. Better understanding and sharing the issues between partners: report with a collection of needs of training of professionnels from the social sector;
2. Better understanding and sharing the issues between partners: report with a collection of needs of mental health people with disabilities;
3. Evaluation tool in order to analyze VET practices and to collect the recommendations;
4. Evaluation tool of transnational meetings;
5. Dissemination and communication tools;
6. Collection of best practices and recommendations;